Modi: Cong wanted to allocate 15% of Budget for minorities, BJP didn't allow

Says 'nakli' Sena and 'nakli' NCP will merge with Cong after polls

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE MUMBAI, MAY 15

PRIME MINISTER Narendra Modi Wednesday said the Congress wanted to allocate 15% of Union Budget for minorities and gave up after meeting with stiff opposition from BJP between 2004 and 2014.

At Pimpalgaon Baswant in North Maharashtra's Nashik district, the PM said, "They want to dedicate 15% of the budget for minorities. They want reservation for minorities. As the CM (of Gujarat), I staunchly opposed it. The BJP did not allow it to happen. Even Dr BR Ambedkar was opposed to reservation based on religion."

Adding that the Congress will perform so badly in the Lok Sabha elections that it will not even be able to stake claim to Opposition's role, Modi said the Shiv Sena (UBT) led by Uddhav Thackeray and NCP-SP led by Sharad Pawar would definitely merge with the Congress after the elections.

"The Congress cannot look beyond minorities as it is their vote bank. They are seeking reservation based on religion for minorities. The party is going to badly lose the elections," he said.

Making an oblique reference to Sharad Pawar, Modi said, "A leader from Maharashtra has suggested that all the smaller parties in the Opposition should merge into Congress. They should pull down their shutters so that they can come together and become an Opposition. 'Nakli (fake)' Shiv Sena and 'nakli' NCP's merger with the Congress is pucca (definite)."

Directing his attack towards Uddhav, Modi said, "It was Bal Thackeray's dream to see the construction of Ram Temple and abrogation of Article 370. Although these dreams have come true, Uddhav Thackeray has joined hands with those parties (Congress), which are questioning both these issues. Shockingly, Uddhav Thackeray is silent."

The rally at Pimpalgaon was significant as the Centre's decision to apply 40% duty and ban export of onions led to massive unrest in north Maharashtra. Following unrest, the export ban on onion was lifted earlier this month.

As Modi spoke about minorities in the rally, farmers from the audience raised their voices and asked the PM to speak about onions. "We have lifted the ban on onion export to help farmers. It is our government which created the buffer stock. There was seven lakh metric tonne procurement of onions from farmers," said Modi.

"In the last 10 years of our government, the export of onions and grapes saw a 35% increase, thereby benefitting farmers," said Modi.

In Kalyan, Modi said, "We have already prepared a blueprint on what we should do in the first 100 days after the polls. Considering the role of the youths who have a significant role to play, I would like to request them to come forward and give suggestions. We will incorporate them after scrutiny. Instead of 100 days, we will make it 125 days."

Adding that from the time of Pandit Nehru, Congress has always talked about garibi (poverty), he said, "But nothing was done. Their politics thrived on Hindu-Muslim agenda."

Rahul: BJP wants to scrap reservation

Rahul Gandhi in Odisha's Bolangir on Wednesday, ANI

norities, farmers and labourers have received till now, it is due to the Constitution.

"If BJP wins, the reservation will be scrapped, the public sector will be privatised, and the country will be run by 22 billionaires. That's why the people's government should be formed," he added.

Rahul claimed that loans worth Rs 16 lakh crore of 22 billionaires were waived off under the BJP-led government, and the amount was equivalent to MGNREGA wages of 24 years.

"They have not given anything to the people. They have not waived off the loans of farmers and students. Forget waiver, they even did not provide loans to small businesses," he claimed.

Rahul said the money collected through GST from the common people was going to only two-three persons.

Rahul said if the Congress is voted to power it will conduct a caste census to provide proper representation to Dalits, tribals and backward classes. "After the census, a revolutionary democracy or people's rule will begin in the country," he said.

He said that handing over airports to industrialists and giving defence contracts to private entities were being showcased as development by the BJP.

"While they have worked for 22 billionaires, we are going to create crores of 'lakhpaties'," Rahul said amid a loud cheer from the people.

Claiming that the INDIA bloc would form the government on June 4, he said, "Soon after, we will make a list of poor families and a woman of each of these families will be provided with an assistance of Rs 8,500 per month."

PoK is part of India, will take it back, says Shah

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE KOLKATA, MAY 15

REFERRING TO the ongoing protests in Pakistan-occupied Kashmir (PoK), Union Home Minister Amit Shah on Wednesday said that PoK is part of India and it will be taken back from Pakistan.

At Serampore in Hooghly district, Shah said: "After abrogation of Article 370 by the Central government in 2019, peace has returned to Kashmir. But now we are seeing protests in Pakistan-occupied Kashmir. Earlier, slogans of azadi (freedom) were heard here. Now, same slogans are heard in PoK. Earlier, stones were pelted here. Now, stones pelted in PoK."

Alleging that Congress leaders were not in support of taking over the PoK, he said, "Congress leaders like Mani Shankar Aiyar say that it should not be done as they have an atom bomb. But let me say this, Pakistan-occupied Kashmir is a part of India and we will take it back." "Rahul Gandhi might oppose it. Mamata Banerjee might oppose it. But it is a reality now that PoK will be a part of India," Shah said.

Pitching the ongoing Lok Sabha elections as a contest between "dynastic" Opposition parties and PM Narendra Modi "with a humble background", Shah said: "(TMC chief) Mamata Banerjee wants her nephew to succeed her as the West Bengal CM. Sharad Pawar wants his daughter to be Maharashtra CM. Even Stalin wants to see his son as CM of Tamil Nadu. Above all, Sonia Gandhi wants Rahul (Gandhi) Baba to become PM. And on the other side, there is an honest and dedicated leader born in the family of a tea-seller."

Shah slammed Mamata Banerjee for opposing the CAA and accused her of "taking out rallies in support of infiltrators to appease her vote bank".

"Mamata Banerjee is spreading lies and canards about CAA. Why is she against refugees obtaining citizenship? She is supporting infiltration in Bengal but opposes Hindu refugees getting citizenship. She is talking of supporting infiltrators and mullahs," Shah alleged.

Hitting out at TMC candidate and sitting MP from Serampore Kalyan Banerjee for allegedly mimicking Vice-President Jagdeep Dhankhar, Shah said Mamata Banerjee and TMC leaders are known for flouting the Constitution. "Mamata Banerjee and TMC continue to flout the Constitution. Mamata's 'representative' and the TMC leader Kalyan Banerjee's ridiculous act of mocking the vice president has been a shameful case of insulting a high constitutional position in the country," he said.
